the oppetite, with light appetissant delicacies, rather than to raped it by the display of a lange, quantity of heavy and substantial fare.

Therefore many conventional, and we might tittled. Thors have conventional and we might say traditional, deleacies, which it is thought the traditional deleacies, which it is thought to provide for a fasticinable welding black for the promise the property of the custom to send a size of wedding cake. It was former y the custom to send a size of wedding cake to tried sea the sould be as large saftly decanded that the cake chould be as large as the bridge of triends was wide; thus a case weighing, perhaps, ninety bounds, was often a meaning that the processing a prediction of the wedding break fast. But as this custom is now obsolere, and thus "is a welfare considered good taste to send slices of wedding cake to frier, is, nor to offer it on the occasion of briefal wire being received. weighing perhaps ninery bounds, was often a necessary appendance to the wedding breakfart. But no this custom is now obsoler, and it is indirect good take to gend it is nither considered good take to gend it is nither considered good take to gend it is not coder it on the decasion of bridal veries being received, it is generally uncessary to keep up the size of the cake, not to offer it on the decasion of bridal veries being received, it is generally uncessary to keep up the size of the cake, not it offer it of the cake, not it offer it of the cake, not it offer it on the decasion of bridal veries being received, it is generally uncessary to keep up the size of the cake, not it offer it off the cake, not it offer it offer the control random and the compounds a little of which goes a very long way. The quantity of welding cake out for, if hot caton by, say one brandred wedding guasta, would not average more than twelve pounds; therefore, a cake weighing twenty pounds; therefore, a cake weighing twenty pounds would be large enough even for this number of guests, leveing a wide margin where with it is satisfy the demands of the household and the children of the family, who are, in reality, themset appreciative consumers of this number of guests, leveing a wide margin where with it is satisfy the demands of the household and the children of the family, who are, in reality, themset appreciative consumers of this number of guests, leveing a wide margin where with its satisfy the demands of the household will be a family deather emotions as still required, however at a country worlding, when the bride's fathor is the owner of broad area and terms and the children is the owner of broad area and terms and the children is the owner.

The K was erespapers declare that a physical point of the already of the point of the already of the point of the satisfactors. He was weaking at the satisfactor of the family, who are in reality themset appreciative consumers of this number of guests, but the satisfactors and the children o and the children of the family, who are, in reality, tho most approximate consumers of this marked mome dainty. A cake of large dimensions is still required, however, at a centry wedding, when the bride's father is the owner of broad acres and has many tenants and dependents, the ladies of whese families hook for the regulation piece of wedding cally to put moder help probable that they may dream of their future husbands; but for the genorality of wedding breakfast as cake weighing twenty pounds would need all requirements.

The most general mannor of arranging a wedding breakfast in town is to combine a sitting-down with a standing-up breakfast that is to say, small round tables, at which some of the guests are accommodiated with seats, and a long hufter or center table, which only often standing accommodation; but the arrangements greatly depend upon the among of space at common d, and the number of guests invited and the number of accommod breakfast is equally fashionable, but oftener than not, as we have before said, the two modes are emblined in one.

A larger number of guests, can be accommod and as standing-up objects, and in consequence, less capensive and the substantial fashionable, and the substantial fashionable, and the conductive the most between the arrangements are related as a standing-up or breakfast to what they require it follows that feyer walters are needed for the accommod and the most proper standing and the conductive that is quickly and the substantial fashionable and themselves to what they require it follows that feyer walters are needed for the account.

- The girl, nless he could not suct— the would love him as a brother; But when implored to many said: "Tripe, please and find another."
- The bricher still pursued the gril, His pleas became much bolder: The gril at fast, to find relief. Gave to him a cold shoulder. He know then that his impes were vails.
  But is his left he said:
- But he he left he said: Since you have caused me such distress, I'll handeb you when I'm des I."
- He pined and grew so thin and pale

  He felt his end was nigh:
  But his wee was such be did not know
  Whether to liver did.
- He tried to drink to drown his area, and there found no relief. But daily grew more weekener :-
- At last his weary soul found rest.

English wedding breaklasts are steadily growing in favor in fashionable circles. It may therefore, interest our readers to know exactly how such optertainments are managed among the British artitopress.

The true art of giving a wedding breakfast, according to the London Queen, which is the according to the London Line with a position, and to compete the appetite, with light upper issand telicacies, rather than to ropel if by the display of a huge quantity of heavy and substantial fare.

There are many conventional, and we might a cain tellular traditional, deliracies, while it is thought. weighing, perhaps, ninety pounds, was often incessary appearance to the wedding break fast. But as his custom is now obsolute, and it is neither considered good taste to send slices of wedding cake to friends nor to offer it on the occasion of bridsi, wisits boing received, it is generally unnecessary to keep up the size of the cake; as it is an expensive and indigetible compensal, a little of which goes a very long way. The quantity of wedding cake and for, if not solve by say one bridged welding gueste, would not average more than twolve, pounds would be large enough even for his nature of guests, leaving a white margin whenevith to sayisty hay demands of the household.

A cake of large dimensions is still required, however, as a country woulding, when the britie's failler is the owner of broad acres and has many themats and the pendents, the ladies of whose families look for regulative piece of wedding cake to pet under their pillows that they may dream of their futers unshands; but for the generality of wedding breakfastica cake weighing twen ty tunder would meet all requirements.

The freet general manner of arranging a stilling down with a standing-up breakfast in town is to combine a sitting-down with a standing-up breakfast which the guests are here more of guests are here more freely proposed at commend, and the number of guests invited and the number of guests in on the highs the wind is a surrand cold, a sweet Moung grashes wither on the wold, i we, O Lord, have wantered from the food t Europeaning brings as home,

The sharp theres prick us, and our tender fret are out and bleeding, and the lambs repeal. The patitul complaints—Oh rest is spend. When evening bring us home:

darkness gathers. Through the gloom no stars to gull to us. We have wnodered fet. hout thy lamp we know not where we are At ovening brill; us home

The clouds are round us, and the snowdrifts thicker. On, then dear Shepherd, leave us not to divisin In the waste night—day tardy; obstans quicken! At evening, order us home!

Circular from Heary F. Hnapp. Civit Fa-gineer, Denouncing the Jetty System. It is an intuitive and fundamental belief of mankind, that truth compositing error will play mankind, that truth compositing error will play a generation or more of din e.
